

Agreement for the use of HorschConnect

Your machine is equipped with HorschConnect and therefore ready for many functions linked with connectivity & digitisation. You can operate various machine functions with the MobileControl app and the machine data is transmitted via the integrated SIM card and visualised in telematics.horsch.com.

The current scope of functions and performance and the terms of use can be found on the following pages:

- <https://www.horsch.com/produkte/intelligence/horschconnect>
- <https://www.horsch.com/portal/terms-privacy>

Once you have submitted this agreement to HORSCH, you will receive an invitation to the HORSCH Portal by email and the machines indicated will be assigned automatically. This will allow you, among other things, access to the following services and information:

- Use of HorschConnect Telematics (telematics.horsch.com)
  - Live telemetry data and historic data for two years as of commissioning
  - Automatic documentation with, for example, position, speed and application rate
  - Display of machine information and error messages
  - Simultaneous use of the portal for several users
  - Targeted support provided by the service partner
- All information about the machine(s) in the HORSCH Portal (portal.horsch.com)
  - News and information on campaigns
  - Information regarding your machine incl. machine history
  - HORSCH documents

I accept HORSCH's General Terms and Conditions and terms of use. I have read the privacy state-ment. The documents can be found at <https://www.horsch.com/portal/terms-privacy>. *

I use HorschConnect as a professional or as a trader. *

Pursuant to Article 4 of the user agreement, I consent to the processing of personal data and can withdraw this consent at any time. *

I confirm that I have informed all machine operators about the collection of personal data by the machine(s) before they are used (see also Article 5 of the user agreement) and have received consent from each of them. *

In the event of questions about the machine, in order to receive optimal service, I consent to personal data being forwarded to my assigned dealer (Article 5 para. 2 of the user agreement).

* Confirmation/consent is obligatory for the use of HorschConnect.

The aforementioned confirmation/consent applies to all machines listed below and acquired in the future. New machines will be activated online and linked to my account.
